FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: 4/20/2020
WishGarden Herbs Rebrands Their Immune Support Hero
“Daily Immune” is Now “Kick-Ass Daily”

WishGarden Herbs has renamed and repackaged their daily immune support formula as Kick-Ass Daily. With a new look, a new name, and the same great formula, Kick-Ass Daily is a companion product to their top-selling Kick-Ass Immune formula. Whether you just made it through a case of the winter “yucks” or want to make sure your immune system is working at its best during this germ-filled season, Kick-Ass Daily is packed with traditional immune tonics that nourish your immune system so it can do its job when you need it most.

“In these stressful times,” said Catherine Hunziker, Owner and Chief Formulator of WishGarden Herbs, “we thought it best to highlight an herbal formula that provides daily support for your immune system. Formulated with powerful herbs like astragalus and echinacea, Kick-Ass Daily deeply nourishes the immune system. Whereas Kick-Ass Daily can be taken every day, Kick-Ass Immune is great for short-term immune support for ‘nipping things in the bud’.”

Kick-Ass Daily is in stock now and available for online purchases on our web site www.wishgardenherbs.com
